

6

Tracing the journeys of refugees

English

Writing in a variety of formats including poems, documentary scripts, letters and narrative.

Performing own compositions.

Draft and write by choosing appropriate grammar and vocabulary.

Evaluate and edit by proposing changes.

Maths

Number – common multiples, factors and BODMAS

Fractions – comparing, ordering, multiplying and dividing, adding and subtracting.

Geography

Use maps and atlases to find where the main source and host countries for refugees are located.

- Trade and economics.

History

Learn about different types of immigration and the ways in which migration has enriched and influenced our country.

Art and D.T.

Study of wildlife and habitats. A look at artists such as Rousseau, Marc and Picasso who all interpreted animals in different ways.

Packing for a journey!

Learning Skill:

'Thinking about thinking'
Developing thinking skills.

Science topic this term is Living Things and Habitats and covers: classification of species according to the Linnaean system and finding out about microorganisms.