

HEADCORN HEADLINES: Friday 21st January 2022

Dear Parents and Carers

In the light of the news that many of the Plan B COVID restrictions are being removed, we are choosing to keep the following measures in place while our own school's positive case numbers remain quite high:

- Regular hand sanitising throughout the day
- Regular wiping down of frequently touched points eg desks, chair backs, door handles, light switches, etc
- Daily deep cleaning of classrooms, communal areas
- Staff wearing face masks in communal areas and speaking to parents/carers
- Keeping to single year groups where possible

Please keep regularly doing LFD testing if your child feels under the weather as many of our positive cases have not been identified by the 3 main symptoms but from stomach upsets, colds, headaches, etc.

Thank you to those families who are testing regularly and helping us to manage this increase in case numbers. We appreciate your support in this matter.

Have a good weekend.

Miss Symonds

NSPCC Resources for Parents and Carers

The NSPCC have put together a resource sheet which gives parents and carers links to support available for a range of concerns or issues. Please see the attached sheet.

Assemblies

Every day the children have assemblies that are aimed at developing their understanding of the wider world, sharing our core values, and encouraging self-reflection. Next week we are learning about Burns Night, which honours the iconic Scottish poet Robert Burns, who wrote, among many things, the New Year's Eve anthem, Auld Lang Syne.

PTFA Update:

The PTFA want to say a massive thank you to Emily O'Donnell, Sarah Richards, Laura Whent and Nikki Worsfold for their organisation of November's Quiz and Fizz night. They raised a massive £1245 for the school. Thanks also goes to Becky Henderson for organising the toy raffle again which raised £380 and to the staff that helped on the mulled wine stand at Bake my Day on 4th December - Beccy Wood, Aimee Aldrich, Emma Corkan, Gemma Nanda, Sarah Hollywood, Terri Cotter, Bianca Carey-Spencer and Ciara Attwell. We really couldn't run these events without all our amazing helpers.
